Dear Charles:

As per our discussion of earlier today, I am writing in reply to your request for the above-referenced information. We recently relocated our offices and when we spoke earlier today I did not realize that the files containing information such as that which you have requested have not yet been unpacked. However, I do have a message in to our redactory, who also holds this information. As soon as I am provided with the information, I will contact you with it.

Regards,
Kelly
